

MADI BOYD

madi.boyd@gmail.com 07961 854868 www.madiboyd.com

- Live and work in London
- Studied at The Slade School of Art and The Cooper Union, NYC.
- My work focuses on perception and the brain. I create built environments with projected moving image. Currently collaborating with neuroscientists at UCL and

Exhibitions: Solo shows

The Cut Arts Centre, Suffolk, May- June 09

Nissan Design Europe London Launch of Cube Car, Nov 08

Stables Art Gallery, London, April 06

Exhibitions: Group Shows

Musion Holographic Awards. Award Winner, Endangered species category.

Westminster University, Regent cinema, London, Nov 09

The Brain Unravalled (selected) Slade Research Centre, London Sep 09 (with Antony Gormley and Liliane Lijn)

Launch of Cultural Olympiad for London 2012, London, Sep 00

mmmm (selected) Crypt gallery, St. Pancras Church, London, Sep 00

The London Group Show (selected) Mether gallery, London, Nov 07

Notwich Fringe Festival, St Andrew's Hall, Notwich, Sep/ Oct 07

TEEN, Ad Hoc Gallery, London May 04

Here and There, Cooper Union School of Art, NYC, 03

Film Screenings

Ipswich Film Festival 'Dark and Daring', (curated by Alex Pearl) March 07

International Conference on Film, UCL "Cinephilia", June 04

Education and Qualifications

Slade School of Fine Art, UCL 2001-2005

BA (Hons) Fine Art

- Graduated from the sculpture department, specialising in installation and new media work.
- Won the Gissings Undergraduate Scholarship
- Spent one semester at the Cooper Union, New York studying under Hans Haacke.

University of Edinburgh, 1994-1998

MA (Hons) History

- Specialised in the philosophy of the Scottish Enlightenment and the Art of the Italian Renaissance.